UNION LEAGUES AND THEIR WORKS—THE HANDMAIDS OF DISUNION AND REVOLUTION.

Proscriptiveness beyond precedent, intolerance beyond measure, and malice beyond belief, with almost all else that is abominable and bad, have for years found an embodiment in those false-faced, mischief-making organizations which have disgraced the country under the title of Union Leagues. These Leagues, while at the beginning and during the war, with amazing audacity, claiming to be nuclei of loyalty, were indeed little else than nests of treason—treason to the Constitution and laws, treason to the great body of the people of the Union. They were the midnight dens of resort, garnished and gilded and drest in purple; dens of voluptuousness, where the guiding spirits of the Radical party met, in bacchanalian revelry, to hatch their infamous schemes for coining the blood of their countrymen into money; for defaming and defiling with venomous tongue the highest and purest public and private character; for treading down the weak in the South and betraying the strong in the North, and despoiling both to the uttermost; for prolonging a sanguinary war for the purpose of furnishing nourishment for perpetuating the life of the Radical party; and for undermining, in this secret and remorseless way, the very Government and institutions under which they live. These Leagues were in their locality, and they were organized everywhere, the headquarters of the conspirators, by whom every one was condemned, and branded, and proscribed who would not become a participator with them in their political brigandage and assassination of character, national and personal. There is not a den of thieves in this country, there is no record of such in any other, that has, when broadly considered, and in all its bearings and consequences, committed so many so great crimes against individuals, against the true interests of their country, against humanity, against civilization itself. Could we get at all that these Leagues have concocted and dared to do; could we get at their secret plots, their discussions, their plans, and the means by which they sought to carry them out; could we turn em with all their workings inside out, and throw a stream of light along their future, we venture to say the developments would be such as to overshadow in infamy all past political organizations in the most countries under heaven, and overcome with amazement the people of our own.

What have they not done? The cry is everywhere—in New York, in Philadelphia, in Boston, and in all the great cities of the West—not so powerful now as lately, when war furnished them a shield and their influence for evil has been vergreat. Where is the hatred, one man of other, for difference of opinion, which they have not caused, or striven to deepen and intensify? Where is the law whose wholesome provisions were antagonistic to the varying lawlessness that marked all the ways, that they have not defied and insulted defiance of? Mark the work; their hands—the work of men who owe no passions that are infernal, and will revel in superabounding and persecuting bitterness towards all whose convictions not like theirs—in the family, the sociecircle, in neighborhoods, communities, estates. None can fail to remember, who are endowed with the capacity of remembering a wrong, how they made, within the sphere and influence, society a hell, set brother against brother, friend against friend, and not seldom wife against husband, child against parent, by pouring into their ears, with cunning words and with falsehow of love of country, their poisonous ciment. They dared to raise—they hig strong and insolent upon the nutriment which they had drawn from a stricken and bleeding country—they dared to lay the rod of the tyrant in menace over head of their fellow citizens, and we best them into what they should be, and do, and sit in judgment upon their ality to their country—a loyalty deep purer, broader, better far than ever foun lodgment in their own corrupt, cushed, unprincipled, and ever-false organization.

The whole influence of these Leagues was most pernicious. Politically, it had in them the most deadly seeds. The political ethics were those of the out Might was right. Laws were nothing precedents were nothing; the pubwelfare was nothing; the past, with all as suffered, with all it has taught, was all it should have decided, was nothing the future with all its hopes, with all promise, with all its glorious possibilities nothing. They were themselves to themselves the all in all. Had they been organizations of little power, and possessed only a surface influence, what they thought what they did would have been creatively unworthy of consideration or elsement. But it was not so. They were very heart, as it were, of the Radical party, and its pulsations showed the life it animated that party. The Leagues indeed something like cabinets of the continually in session when the policy and purpose and plans of operation were fully discussed. The Leagues the party were of the same flesh the same blood, and the same mind. The Radical party would never rest until they had overthrown the liberties of American people, this journal and others that have been true to their great old sentinels for the people on the watch-tors of the Republic, have charged guard over again. They went a strong ament, a splendid Government, a my Government. They have from the ning been shaping matters to this end never until now have they dared to throw the hypocritical mask which they so long worn, and come out boldly in Empire, as the Union Leagues—the nets, as we have said, of the party—of York and Philadelphia have done.—Journal Intelligencer.

LINCOLN'S DOMESTIC QUILL.—A correspondent of the Rochester (New York) Union states that Mr. Lincoln was by no means free from domestic. On the occasion of the wedding of Kate Chase, a daughter of the Chief Jus to Senator Sprague, Mrs. Lincoln, had a violent aversion to Miss Chase, did that President Lincoln should not end on his coming into her presence ll dress, she made a furious assault upon him. He retired in confusion, with ss of a shirt collar and a portion of whiskers, but having repaired damages, ceded to the festival. On his return he found the door of his sleeping room locked. In vain he called upon his wife to open it; she would not. In vain he used every term of endearment. She was immovable. So, vanquished in the final encounter, the poor man had to call upon the housekeeper for a "shake-down." Then he retired in solitude to reflect upon the uncertainty of domestic bliss.

A rumor comes from Berlin that Mrs. Abraham Lincoln is to marry Count Schmidtswill, Grand Chamberlain of the Duke of Baden. Schmidtswill is a bold fellow.

LIFE INSURANCE.

ALL CASH PLAN OF THE

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

W. H. CROW, General Agent for North Carolina and Virginia, South of the James.

Accumulated Capital, over	$10,000,00
Annual Income,	6,000,000

THE ÆTNA

Has $136 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

ALL POLICIES STRICTLY NON-FORFEITING.

CASH RATES!

CASH POLICIES!

CASH DIVIDENDS!

DIVIDENDS PAID ANNUALLY, COMMENCING AT THE END OF THE YEAR.

Dividends may be used to reduce the annual Premium or increase the Cash value of the Policy.

NON-FORFEITING CASH PLAN.

The Ætna issues Policies on the various forms of whole life and endowment insurance, with dividends on the contribution plan, which may be applied to the reduction of each annual premium after the first, or the full premium, may be paid each year and the dividens applied to reduce the number of annual premiums, together with the period fixed for the maturity of the insurance, so that endowments can be paid to the insured before the time originally specified, and life policies before death.

By this plan of applying the dividends to lessen the cost of the insurance on the original policy, instead of increasing the amount of insurance, and of course the total cost, and the policies will become self-sustaining much sooner than in other companies; and in case of inability to continue payments, gives a larger paid-up-policy.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

The New York Insurance Monitor says of the Ætna:

"No Life Insurance Company ever achieved so complete a success as this popular institution.—Its popularity is altogether unprecedented in the annals of commercial enterprise in this country."

SAY OF THE

BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIZUR WRIGHT.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

FRIDAY, APRIL 30, 1869.

ATTORNEY GENERAL COLEMAN.

This distinguished member of the Governor's reconstruction staff made his appearance at the Hillsboro' bar on Tuesday last. Many questions were asked. First: "Who is he?" and next, "What is his business?"

The Governor has sent out detectives and it occurred to us "that might be Coleman's business." Sure enough, on Wednesday, it leaked out through Col. Guthrie, of the League, that Coleman was sent here by the Governor to inquire into the matter of the Orange County Commissioners, and to file information against them for usurping office, and holding the same illegally. We don't know what conclusion Col. Guthrie and the Attorney General came to, in the premises. The Governor should be satisfied with the judgment of the Court, especially when Tourgee presides. Information was filed by the Attorney General at the instance of the Governor, and our Commissioners arrested by summons and carried to Greensboro before Tourgee, the Judge.—Tourgee dismissed the case, the Commissioners were retained, and now exercise their office.

Holden's malice knows no bounds. Of all the people in this world he hates the people of Orange the worst, because they know him best. The late article in the Standard about "Rebels Holding Office" accords with Coleman's visit. Now it is a sight to look upon to see the man who advertised for "Old Abe's" head sending drunken Coleman to Orange to punish treason and talk about loyalty.

Coleman may file his information to Tourgee against our Commissioners, but before he does so we will file information against Coleman, Holden and Tourgee, the Judge.

But to the information against Coleman. On Tuesday he appeared sober; there were no marks of Joe Holden's fingers upon his face made in the grog shop fight. Tuesday night the Attorney General was good drunk. His purpose was to return to "our beloved" on Wednesday. The hack was to call for him on Wednesday morning before day. When the Governor's constitutional adviser was called to go to the depot, he cursed the servant for waking him up; he swore he would not go, but he would go by the freight train. When waked up for the freight he swore he would not go by that. He then filled his Radical carcass and his bottle too with whiskey, and in a buggy started for the "City of Oaks," where John Neathery prints the Standard for Littlefield and Holden. Now Coleman is just the man for Attorney General so long as Holden is Governor, and Tourgee is Judge. Let the Governor himself quit the grog shops and send for Gen. Vance to persuade Coleman and his son Joe, to sign again the Temperance pledge, and that will add a little to the respectability of his administration.

WORDS OF TRUTH.

All classes of our people have a common interest in the prosperity of the South.—Another season's good crops in that section of the country will do more to place the nation in a condition to resume specie payments than all the theories of politicians, or the long drawn out wisdom of Congress. Through much distress and misery the South, in spite of politicians and the blunders of legislators, is now entering upon a new and substantial career of prosperity that may soon eclipse the glories of the West and North.—N. Y. Commercial, (Radical organ.)

We like this sort of writing. This Northerner speaks out as he understands the matter. He may give the South more credit for recuperation than is true, but there can be but little doubt as to the correctness of the assertion that "all classes" of the Northern people "have a common interest in the prosperity of the South." A poor South, and there will be inevitably a poor North. Let the fields of the South become barren forever and the bloated wealth of the capitalists of the North will soon diminish, growing "beautifully less" each revolving year. If they will supply "those sinews" so much needed throughout this State and the South generally—greenbacks in abundance, our people everywhere will feel the benefit. Every pound of cotton or tobacco or rice, every bushel of wheat or corn, or rye, or oats, or potatoes, or onions grown, conduces to the nation's wealth.—Every wheel set in motion, every shaft that is sunk by the miner, every seine that is drawn, every orchard that is planted, is adding to the financial prosperity of the Union.

So we have this to say to the Commercial and all other Radical papers. Help us recover from the wastes of a long war, if you would build up your own interests. Give us less of Radical rancor and more of justice and praise. Do not combine with any set of men who would crush our people, but by words of kindness and cheer, by acts of sympathy and love, animate our hearts and strengthen our hands. Send us your men of capital and some of your industrious laboring people, and then all working together for the good of all, peace will indeed be restored and plenty will abide in our homes.

THE APPOINTMENT OF A HEBREW.—The appointment of Mr. Simon Wolf, a wealthy Hebrew of Washington, to be register of deeds for the District of Columbia, an office worth from $4,000 to $6,000 per annum, was made, it is said, in deference to that class of our citizens.

SENATOR SPRAGUE.

This gentleman has done much good already by his efforts to arouse our people to a proper sense of the great dangers that threaten them. He is greatly comforted and encouraged in his course. He recently introduced into the Senate a tremendous batch of letters received from various portions of the country highly approving of his course. At the conclusion of his speech delivered on the occasion he said:

"Banish, therefore, all bitter recollections of the past, apply to the present a remedy for dangers more destructive than war or famine, study well my words and the plan of relief I have proposed, and unite with me in that which may seem necessary to arrive at a speedy and whole solution of the difficulties which surround us. I would preserve all of good we have. Men of the North! bring to your recollection that the men of the South are more native Americans than you are. Men of the South! remember that the enterprise, skill, and endurance of the men of the North are essential to the strength of the nation. All timid people may be assured that my cardinal principle is to produce radical results by conservative means. I am relieved from the great anxieties that have oppressed me, because I now have the people of the United States to share these anxieties with me.—For the past few weeks I have been but revising my studies and investigations. The letters I have read show that I may be safely followed in the completion of the great work set before us."

COLEMAN—HOLDEN AND THE INFORMATION AGAINST THE COMMISSIONERS OF ORANGE.

The Attorney General Coleman, after leaving Hillsboro' in a buggy with old Dan Nichols, (colored,) was seen driving up to the house of one of the Commissioners, fifteen miles from Hillsboro. Coleman drunk, old Dan sober. The Commissioner fed his enemy who had come to oust him from the place to which the people had elected him. The Attorney General informed the Commissioner that he had no money to pay for his drinks, and he further said that those who got him to come to Hillsboro were to pay his expenses. Who are the persons that got him to come? Was it Holden? Was it Col. Guthrie? Was it Solomon Pool? Or, was it Prof. Brewer? Whoever you are, gentlemen, come out like men and pay the Attorney General's bill, as you promised to do.

A citizen of Chapel Hill informs us that Professor Patrick said, Joe Turner would be killed; somebody would kill him. We hope against it. At all events, we hope we shall not be killed as dead as Professors Patrick and Brewer have killed the University. The Professor did not say, like Gen. Estes, that the man who killed us should be pardoned, for we take it he is not so apt to speak for the Governor, as a carpet bagger like Estes.

We say to Professor Patrick, teach the young ideas how to shoot, and leave us out in your conversations, and we will leave you out in our paper.

A COMPARISON.

The quarrel between Sprague, of Rhode Island, and our Abbott promises to give them great notoriety. Sprague had made himself prominent already by his bold and patriotic speeches in the Senate, but our Abbott had not, we believe, achieved any special reputation, unless, to use one of Sidney Smith's sayings about Lord Macaulay, by "his brilliant flash of silence." But there is no mistaking it now: Abbott went to the Senate one day, and "found himself famous." The press generally seem disposed to take a tilt at these redoubtable champions. The wittiest account of the matter we have met with is the following, clipped from the New York World:

"If anything could be more absurd than the public quarrel of Abbott and Sprague, it would be their public reconciliation.—Sprague, it seems, had a tin-can and Abbott had a tail. Sprague cast his can casually upon the floor of the Senate, and Abbott affixed it to his tail and gambolled howling and accusing Sprague of appending to him that which he recognized must have been meant for one like him. Sprague thereupon unties the tin-can which he did not fasten, and Abbott retracts his howls. This is really too bad."

THE CUBAN REVOLUTION.

From late accounts it seems highly probable that the insurgents will be finally overcome by the Spanish forces. Although Cubans generally are revolutionists, there have not been such combination of forces and such maturity of plans as were necessary to insure success. In addition to other serious drawbacks, the rebels have not had the necessary arms and ammunition. The main commander of their forces is General Cespedes, who is recognized as the most efficient officer in the insurgent ranks. The Spanish troops number, as we have seen stated, some forty thousand, and are excellently equipped for active service. Unless recruits should join rapidly the rebel forces, the prospect at present leads us to anticipate that the contest will not last much longer. So all the golden visions of certain politicians will be dissipated into thin air. But this is of no moment. A much more serious disappointment will be experienced by the insurgents and their friends. Spanish cruelty is proverbial, and the sharp and merciless measures already adopted by the authorities lead us to fear, that when the rebellion is ended, a terrible scene of persecution and death will follow.

THE HANDS.—Some person writing from this city to the New York Times, (Radical,) on the 5th, inst, thus speaks of the hands:

"The Legislature has been in a salon for several months, and, with the exception of the Revenue bill, has done absolutely nothing for the people of the State. Special legislation for the benefit of individuals is the order of the day. General legislation, looking to the prostrate people, is seldom considered worth a moment's reflection.

As the result of this state of things, North Carolina bonds are to-day selling below par, and the prospect is, unless something is speedily done, that the credit of the State will be utterly ruined."

The saddest part of the picture is its truth. Alas! for poor old North Carolina.

Strawberries are fifty cents a basket in New Orleans, and apples six for a dollar.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND GLEANINGS.

If the English and American critics are to be trusted, ROBERT BROWNING is the greatest poet since John Milton wrote his immortal works. Indeed, there are some who only place him next to Shakespeare.—We have not as yet had time to read "The Ring and the Book," the last and greatest of all Browning's productions. A part friend had told us sometime ago how wondrously grand and beautiful the first volume was, but now, that the second volume is out and the poem is complete, all the critics are singing its praises as they have sung of no book in these two hundred years. We will give some extracts from English and American writers, that our readers may see what an impression Browning's last is making among the literati. We only premise that the commendation heaped upon him is so hearty, so general, so earnest, that we confess to some anxiety to partake ourself of the rich fruitage that hangs clustering from the vines of his poesy.

1. We will give first a few passages from the London Athenæum, the oldest, and with the exception of the Saturday Review, the ablest of all the English weeklies. It begins its notice of the second volume of "The Ring and the Book" with this impassioned utterance:

"At last, the opus magnum of our generation lies before the world—the "ring is rounded;" and we are left in doubt which to admire most, the supremely precious gold of the material or the wondrous beauty of the workmanship. The fascination of the work is still so strong upon us, our eyes are still so spell-bound by the immortal features of Pompilia (which shine through the troubled mists of the story with almost insufferable beauty,) that we feel it difficult to write calmly and without exaggeration; yet we must record at once our conviction, not merely that 'The Ring and the Book' is beyond all parallel the supremest poetical achievement of our time, but that it is the most precious and profound spiritual treasure that England has produced since the days of Shakspeare. Its intellectual greatness is as nothing compared with its transcendent spiritual teaching. Day after day it grows into the soul of the reader, until all the outlines of thought are brightened and every mystery of the world becomes more and more softened into human emotion."

The critic exhibits in the following elegant passage a singular aptitude for interpreting in a few words the distinguishing traits of the great masters of song:

"We have had Milton, with his stately and crystal speech, his special disposition to spiritualize polemics, his profound and silent contemplation of heavenly processions. We have had Dryden, with his nervous filterings of English diction; and we have had the so called Parnian singers, with their sweetly English fancies touched with formal charity, like wild flowers sprinkled with holy water. In latter days, we have been wealthy indeed. Wordsworth has consecrated Nature, given the hills a new silence, shown in simple lines the solemnity of deep woods and the sweetness of running brooks. Keats and Shelley caught up the solemn consecration, and uttered it with a human passion and an ecstatic emotion that were themselves a revelation.—Byron has made his Epimethean and somewhat discordant moan. Numberless minor men, moreover, have brightened old outlines of thought and made clear what before was dim with the mystery of the original prophet. In our own time, Carlyle—a poet in his savage way—has driven some new and splendid truths (and as many errors) into the heart of the people. But it is doubtful, very doubtful, if any of the writers we have named—still less any of the writers we have not named—stands on so distinct and perfect a ground of vantage as to be altogether safe as a human guide and helper. The student of Wordsworth, for example, is in danger of being hopelessly narrowed and dwarfed, unless he turns elsewhere for qualities quite un-Wordsworthian; and the same is true of the students of Milton and of Shelley. Of Shakspeare alone (but perhaps, to a certain extent, of Burns) would it be safe to say, "Communion with his soul is ample in itself; his thought must freshen, can never cramp, is ever many-sided, and full of the free air of the world." This, then, is supremely significant, that Shakspeare—unlike the Greek dramatists, unlike the Biblical poets, unlike all English singers, save Chaucer only—had no special teaching whatever. He was too human for special teaching. He touched all the chords of human life; and life, so far from containing any universal lesson, is only a special teaching for each individual—a sibylline riddle, by which each man may educate himself after his own fashion.

We should be greatly exaggerating if we were to aver that Mr. Browning is likely to take equal rank with the supreme genius of the world; only a gallery of pictures like the Shakspearean group could enable him to do that; and, moreover, his very position as an educated modern must necessarily limit his field of workmanship. What we wish to convey is, that Mr Browning exhibits—to a great extent, in all his writings, but particularly in this great work—a wealth of nature and a perfection of spiritual insight which we have been accustomed to find in the pages of Shakspeare, and in those pages only."

He remarks near the close of his fine critique that,

"Fault-finders will discover plenty to carp at in a work so colossal. For ourselves, we are too much moved to think of trifles, and are content to bow in homage, again and again, to what seems to us the highest existing product of modern thought and culture."

2. We have only room for the following paragraph from an American editor. We copy it from the "Ex Cathedra" of the New Eclectic, published in Baltimore. The writer says:

"If a singularly unanimous consent among critics is to be received as sufficient evidence, the present age has seen the birth and growth to maturity of the most splendid genius that has charmed the world since the days of Shakespeare, perhaps. On all hands, The Ring and The Book, by Robert Browning, the last volume of which has just been given to the public, is announced to be the great work of our generation.—And what we would not have expected, it is prophesied that it will appeal powerfully to the great heart of humanity, and not merely to the exceptionally intellectual and cultivated, as the other works of the same author have done."

The rumor started some time ago to the effect that Senator Sprague had bought, or was about to buy, the National Intelligencer is now renewed in a slightly different form but with greater positiveness of statement than before. It is said that he has paid off a mortgage of $48,000, and now owns a controlling interest in the paper.—Washington Chronicle, 27th.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—

Dear Sir:—A recent trip enables me to place at your disposal a fact or two which may serve the historian who attempts to hand down to posterity correct lives of those creatures, known as "Carpet baggers," who have migrated to our section of country for, as they say, the purpose of "correcting the evils" that exist among us. I will not insult these philanthropic "gemmen" I know by saying instead of eradicating our evils they are daily making more additions to them than was added by their appearance on our stage of action, for they are truly beyond that point which compels a resentment of an insult,—alas they are too far removed above the "common people" to notice what their envious tongues may say. But to my facts. As I entered the cars at Richmond I was told "Governor Wells" of Virginia (that was) was on the train and being extremely anxious to see the contemptible police court lawyer who had been so extremely metamorphosed I sought until, my eyes rested on the "critter," and oh! what a "critter" he was. Conceit was wholly his and in his every move arrogance shown forth "hugely," while his tongue, in thunder tones, profusely spoke out language "mighty logical," and as strong as musk from his colored "Lt. Gov." (that is to be.) As I beheld him moving his stately form from place to place, and smiling on all who designed to catch his eye, I could not desist from thinking "how we apples swim." His appearance was great, but what I heard him tell a gentleman was "greatest of all." I heard him make use of the following remarks: "The people of Virginia are basely ungrateful to me, sir, I gave up a situation which was paying me from fifteen to twenty thousand dollars a year to accept the Governorship of their State for the purpose of improving their moral condition (I presume, out of kindness, he referred here to the negroes of Va.) and establish their political affairs on a sound and healthy basis." When my ears drank in this magnanimous remark my mind ran back to the time when with a dirty shirt, pennyless pocket and filthy person this imposter walked Michigan's soil eagerly seeking to obtain the low cases of a city court to try midst people, who, though immoral themselves, knew him far too well to entrust him with their cases.—The arrogance, impudence and "magnimity" of this "C. B." is only equalled by that of "Sprague's Puppy" who claims that "Unless I resent this insult the people (in a horn) of my State (what an ass) will spurn me with contempt." "The people of my State" (Connecticut) would put him in the penitentiary if he would just give them a chance. But away with Abbott for he is too contemptible to be noticed save by "the people, &c."

Whether these facts, relative to our neighbor's ruler, are worthy of your consideration I can only surmise; yet, judging from the manner in which you handle Governors in North Carolina I am almost satisfied, they will be given your smile. I do not write often for papers and consequently am not an expert in the business, as you will see. In conclusion let me wish success to the Sentinel and express myself as confident that it will ever be found at its post,

ONWARD.

GENERAL LEE.

The Northern papers say that our great General Lee will soon be in Washington, and will visit Grant by invitation. The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald, says:

"It is stated that the General will visit the Executive Mansion during his stay here, and will have one or more interviews with the President, who has requested General Lee to call upon him. It is intimated that the object of the interview sought for by the President is to obtain from General Lee his opinion of the working of the Reconstruction laws in the State of Virginia, and of the present temper of the leading citizens of the South."

The New York Times shows the fees of the Sheriff of New York to amount at present to more than $300,000 per annum, and says that a bill now pending before the Legislature, if passed, will increase the emoluments of the office to one million yearly.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Walker and Hatcher's Process for manufacturing Sugars and Syrups: Robert Souther, Kittrell.

London Miltonian Tableaux at Tucker Hall, next week.

Mrs. R. T. Lampsacht will open her Summer Garden on 1st May.

HARRALSON, PAYLOR & Co., all North Carolinians, are conducting the Tobacco Commission business at Macon, Georgia. We are intimately acquainted with Mr Paylor, and believe him to be as reliable and estimable a gentleman as we have ever known. His partners are highly endorsed to us. Tobacco manufacturers will do well to favor them with their business.

"LOST DOG"—This poem is Miltonic in the richness of its language and thought. Read it. See fourth page.

THE MILTONIAN TABLEAUX.—These celebrated tableaux are to be open at Tucker Hall during the coming week. The following notice appeared in a Cincinnati paper:

"Our highest anticipations of this exhibition were most fully realized last night at the Masonic Hall, in witnessing the scenic representation of Milton's Paradise Lost, as illustrated by John Martin. The audience was numerous, and throughout the whole entertainment, from the rising of the curtain to the going down of the same, their eyes were held spell-bound, either by the surprising beauty, vividness, grandeur or magnificence of the panoramic display, as well as by the sublimity of the artist's conception of the ideas of the poet."

A BOLD ATTEMPT TO ROB.—As Mr. Thos H. Harris, who clerks for Mr. T. V. Moss, the watch maker, who has been sick for some time, was returning to Mr. M's last night about 10 o'clock, and when near the residence of Mr. J. D. Royster, he was suddenly approached by a man who seized his watch chain, presenting at the same time a pistol, Mr. Harris quickly drew a Derringer and placed it near the man's face. The robber asked, "what have you got here," his hand still being on Mr. Harris' chain. "It is none of your business" was the prompt reply. The robber then told him, that if he moved "he would blow his d—d brains out." Harris then said: "If you do not take your hand off I will blow your brains out. Who are you?" The robber replied, "It is none of your business. Now go your way, and I will go mine." Both then commenced retreating with their faces towards each other. When the robber got to the corner of Mr. Royster's lot, he turned and ran rapidly away. He is described as a large man with huge, bushy whiskers. His voice was very coarse and deep. He was evidently disguised in person and voice. Mr. Harris thinks the fellow expected that he had a number of watches with him carrying them to Mr. Moss' house. Young Harris is about eighteen years of age.

BISHOP ATKINSON.—This distinguished prelate is now upon his annual visitation to the various parishes in his Diocese. He is very much beloved by his people, and his ministrations are often attended by the members of other denominations. The Rev. John S. Long, editor of the Eastern Intelligencer, himself no ordinary man, upon the occasion of Bishop Atkinson's visit to Washington, among other things, says:

"Bishop Atkinson is a very high model of Episcopal dignity and excellence. Full of Christian grace and suavity of manner, practical and scholarly in his methods of thought and drapery of language, and always sacrificing, as a great, good man should do, the mere pomp and trappings of style to the high, heavenly utility of his holy office. We should not call him an orator in the popular, wordly use of that term; but we should take him to be something much greater than an orator, a profound Christian thinker and scholar."

THE Eastern Intelligencer contains an account of the laying of the corner-stone of the New Methodist Church at Washington on the 21st inst. Rev. Dr. Moran preached the sermon, and Rev. Mr. Moore, pastor, offered "a most solemn and touching prayer addressed to God and not to man." By request, our friend Long, editor of the Intelligencer, laid the corner-stone, exhibiting, as he avers, "his tender appreciation of the hopes of his brethren, but unmistakably," manifesting at the same time, "his shining duqualification as a brick mason." "The new Church is to be Gothic in its style, and will be one of the most beautiful structures in the State. It will be 40 by 55, with an elegant vestibule, and a good basement underneath."

STATE NEWS.

The following gentlemen have been elected Directors of the Wilmington and Manchester Railroad, viz:

Messrs. John Dawson, A. J. DeRosset, D. S. Cowan, H. B. Short, J. G. Burr, J. Eli Gregg, C. Graham, J. S. Bartlett, Wm. Evans and W. S. Mullins.

The Odd Fellows of Edgecombe county had a grand excursion on the 26th inst, on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of the Edgecombe Lodge, No. 50.

At a church meeting, on last Sabbath in the Presbyterian church in this place, it was agreed that the services of the Rev. Messrs. S. A. Stanfield and J. Doll, to preach one sermon each in every month.—We are glad to be able to state, that we shall have preaching twice a month, if not oftener.—Milton Chronicle.

W. C. Troy, of Fayetteville advertises in the Eagle for $32,000 Confederate currency of date July 11th, 1862, for which he offers to pay ten cents on the dollar, and $67,000 of date September 19th, 1864, for which he will pay 15 cents on the dollar.

The Odd Fellows of Washington are to have a festival on the 27th and 28th of May.

The Methodist and Episcopal fairs held in Washington during Court week netted nearly $1,000.

BARN BURNED.—We regret to learn that Mr. Reamobd Dupree, living near Sparta, in this county met with a serious loss on Friday last, in the destruction by fire of his barn and entire contents, including a large amount of corn.

The fire took place during the day, and is supposed to have been the result of some unexpected accident.

This is the second loss of similar character that has befallen Mr. Dupree since the close of the war.—Tarboro Southerner.

SUPERIOR COURT.—This tribunal is still in session, and will probably continue in session until Saturday evening. Quite a number of cases have been disposed of, but most of them possess but little general interest. On Friday last the case of the State against Col. Wm. F. and David Henderson was taken up. It appearing that the case was not properly in court a certiorari was issued to the clerk of Davidson Superior Court, from which court the case had been removed to the Superior Court of Rowan, returnable on Saturday morning.—From the transcript then returned, it appeared that the case had never been put at issue in Davidson court—that the plea of 'not guilty,' had never been entered. Where upon the defendants were "bound over" to appear at Davidson Court next week to answer the indictment pending against them. It is proper to say that when the case was reached the prosecution announced its readiness for trial, and proposed that the pleas be entered by consent and the trial proceed. But the defense was mulish and insisted upon letting the case take its course.

On to-day the case of the State against Hardie, indicted for the murder of Daniel Shaver, will be taken up and the trial commenced.—Old North State.

CARPET-BAG OFFICE HOLDERS A RICH SPECIMEN.—Pitt county is certainly blessed to the fullest extent with tribes of the above named gentry, conspicuous among whom stands forth a certain Foley, so called sheriff.

The records speak for themselves, and we respectfully refer the "powers that be" to the exhibit made therein by this promising disciple of full fledged radicalism.

At the Fall Term, 1868, of Wake Superior Court, judgment was obtained against the aforesaid Foley, sheriff, for the sum of $7,000, the entire State Taxes of the county of Pitt for that year. Of this amount it appears that he has paid into the State Treasury $4,500, leaving still due about $2,500.

For this last amount of $2,500, execution has been issued against the said Foley and his sureties, which was placed for collection in the hands of a specially appointed Coroner.

This Coroner, after a careful search for anything upon which he can levy, makes the following return upon the Execution,—"Nothing to be found."

Sheriff and Sureties are pronounced perfectly worthless,—carpet-baggers in the fullest sense of the term,—and yet notwithstanding this proof of his and their utter irresponsiblity he is to be permitted to go on and collect the taxes of the county for the present year.

Who and what are his sureties we have not definitely ascertained, but understand that among them are embraced such men as Rich, Loftin, &c., a man without scarcely a "local habitation or a name" and who are not worth, with us, the dirt which they defile with their presence.

And this is but one instance of the utter worthlessness of the bonds given by the great majority of radical officers throughout the State, which, if tested, will almost invariably prove to be of the same character as that of this man Foley.—Tarboro Southerner.

A. J. Dement, of Kittrell's, Granville county, for smuggling manufactured plug tobacco in a trunk for the evident purpose of selling it, was arrested in Newbern last Thursday. He was bound over in the sum of $200.

Bergh, president of the society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, stopped a $2,000 pigeon shooting match in New York yesterday. There was great excitement, and only the presence of the policemen saved Bergh from being roughly handled.

The Rev. Michael Mullen, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Church in Chicago, died Saturday morning, aged 34. It is a strange coincidence that he died in the same house which has had the same fatal influence upon four priestly occupants within a period of about seven months. Rev. Patrick Dillon entered the house on the 14th of September, 1868, and died on the 14th of October following. His brother, James Dillon, took charge of the house October 14th and died November 18th following.—Rev. CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN,

Or Pure Liquor of Juniper Berries.

This favorite brand of Pure London Cordial Gin, has stood the test of time, imitation, piracy, high tariffs and unfair competition, and still enjoys a constantly increasing sale; showing that true merit does not always go unappreciated.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is offered to the public as a perfectly reliable specific in all cases of DISEASED BLADDER and KIDNEYS. It acts directly on these organs, with a directness and speediness which render it invaluable to persons suffering from GRAVEL, DIABETES INFLAMED BLADDER, scanty and highly colored urine, and in all cases where, from whatever cause, a healthful diuretic is required.

Ladies subject to painful menstruation, can by the use of Cordial Gin a few days previous to, and during illness, obtain great relief. In such instances it should be taken with sugar and warm water.

As a tonic and beverage this Gin is unequaled, as it possesses none of the headache properties to be found in those poisons, now so frequently sold under the names of Gin, Brandy, Whiskey, &c.

VIRGINIA DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, April 29.—The spirit of debate in Convention, evinced by those who favored the minority report, urging the people to vote down the Constitution was, that while negro suffrage might be forced on the people by the government, yet Virginians should not themselves assist in the degradation. Those who favored the majority report, urged that that sort of the argument was a thing of the past. Negro-suffrage was an accomplished fact, and the white people of the State, instead of sullenly resisting the general government, which is our Government, should carry out reconstruction in good faith, accepting what the Government gives us, and making the best of it. It was urged that the election of Gilbert C. Walker, a Northern Republican and administration supporter, for Governor, would give the people of the North confidence in our professions, and induce immigration to the state.

The minority report was advocated by ex-Gov. Wm. Smith, and the majority report by John B. Baldwin and Jno R. Edmunds.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Langour and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

"LAUS DEO."

BY H. P.

Great and Omnipotent God! Thy name we laud!
Let the vast homage of our hearts unite
With the cherubic hallelujahs to Thee—God!
Thou has appareled earth with raiment bright.
Heaven's own livery,
In which high, priceless like,
She worships Thee.

The morning writes Thy name in golden scroll,
The rising sun, resplendent herald, Thee,
Such rosy incense o'er the heavens roll,
As only meets for Thy divinity.
Almighty God!
Earth, air and glowing sky,
Thy glory laud!

See, radiant from the grey mist of the morn,
The day comes fresh from God's creative hand,
Gems, bright as Eden wall's, her robes adorn,
And rosy arches o'er her bosom spanned,
Earthward she cries,
"God, God, Almighty God,
Made earth and skies."

She with God-given power, paints the glow,
Fresh caught from heaven's jasper battlements,
One almost sees, the Great Throne's emerald bow
Flashing its light thro' mimic rifts and rents.
So glorious that and hue
Heaven, the transfigured skies,
Seem burning thro'.

The Sun with all attending pageantry
Comes in procession thro' the orient gate,
From unseen corners, over land and sea,
Pours the baptismal of his golden state.
The rosy day,
Fit herald of his coming,
Blushing on his way.

* * * * *

An angel opes the portals of the west,
Almost God's hills, break on the startled view,
At grandly goes the sun, unto his rest,
A vision of gem-embattled walls shines thro'
The clouds are rolled,
Line fleets celestial,
In lagoons of gold.

Moon, vestal over heaven's altar fires,
Pure Priestess, robed with charity's sweet light,
What epithems to Great God, your starried choirs,
Shout thro' the immortal splendors of the night.
God, God, God
Praise Him, oh, Moon,
Oh, stars, His glory laud!

He wrought the amethystine temple-arch,
He spread the pathway which your feet have trod,
Oh, Moon and stars; in your resplendent march,
Roll peans to the name of living God!
Mortals join the strain,
God, your Creator, praise,
In loftiest refrain.

Souls! Ye who yearn to enter Paradise,
And tread the pathway angel feet have trod,
Behold a faint foreshadowing of the skies
Lifting their splendors o'er the Throne of God.
Radiant always,
For night ne'er breaks
That everlasting day.

Patented Sept. 22, 1868.
REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS SOAP.
The Patentee claims for this soap the following advantages which are clearly set forth in the Letters Patent, to-wit:
First, it can be manufactured at less than half the cost of any soap ever produced.
Secondly, it may be used successfully in any kind of water—cold or hot hard or soft
Thirdly, it so modifies the action of boiling water on woollen goods that they do not contract under its influence, and your woollen garment is as large after boiling as before.
Fourth, it does not decompose the colors of goods, and your prints and stripes are as brilliant after washing as before.
Fifth, the goods do not require any rubbing or patent washing machine—all that is necessary is a few minutes boiling and a good rinsing.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

$1,000,000,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers, and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so fuddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He cannot comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he looks into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

$1,000,000

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,582 policies.

Amount insured,	$10,008,350.00
Total Premiums,	350,117.03

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 892
By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey, 693
" New England Mutual, 343
" Phœnix Mutual, 335
" Massachusetts Mutual, 312
" Equitable of New York, 277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.
In its 10th year, $1,260 "
And in its 20th year, 2,843 "
this latter being 690 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever, they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

CAUTION! WE desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of Snuff generally, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."
In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practised upon them, as they are the losers thereby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's Snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

WE inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and South, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand Shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.
THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.
THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, to any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.
This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.
The hot suds are made, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the sun-bonnet. For flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.
The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and cleansing the dirt without labor or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.
Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to sensitive females. The cost of the Boiler will be restored in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.
The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.
So invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHERS, and see its wonderful operations.—we have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State.
